About Band Academy

We have been leading sessions in schools for almost 4 years now, offering expert tuition in learning instruments, songwriting and performing.

Everything we do is centred around empowering every young person we work with to realise they have unlimited potential and our instrument lessons are carefully crafted to reflect this.

What are the instrument lessons like?

We are passionate about bringing interactive, engaging and unique tuition. We ensure that your child develops their skills and is able to apply them in a variety of ways. With a modernised and personal approach and tutors that live for music, our aim is to inspire the next generation of musicians!
