

Thursday 28 November 2019

Dear Parents,

We (Adonis Blues) would like to invite you to our first clarinet performance in an assembly on Thursday 12 December 2019 at 9.30am. We have been working very hard, are producing a fantastic sound as an ensemble and we are very excited to share this with you.

Mr Kershaw (our clarinet teacher) will be leading the performance and it will include an opportunity to hear our clarinet playing as well as some singing which we have been learning to support our understanding of pulse, pitch and timing.

We hope you can join us there!
