Writing we are going to write our own "How Many Legs?" story.

Barlow's Top Tips.

You could pick some of your favourite animals and insects to include in your story.

How many legs would there be if Humphrey and Barlow came for tea?

D&T We are learning how to join materials together.

Your challenge is to make some of the animals from your story.

You need to think about how you will make them.

What methods you could use to join your materials together.

Can you make your joints move?
