Moment of the Week:

Silver Studded Blues had a wonderful educational visit to the Sea Life Centre on Thursday. They had a tour of the creatures with lots of amazing facts, were able to touch some starfish and watched penguins, the turtle and the rays being fed. They are now looking forward to their learning about evolution and adaptation. Their enthusiasm and behaviour were a credit to the school.

Children's Mental Health Week

We have planned daily activities to support the children with their mental health. The theme this year is "Let's Connect". Each day next week, the children will explore this theme in class through identification of important people, looking at connections within the class and the wider community. On Friday 10 February, the children and staff are invited to wear clothes to school that makes them feel happy.

Holly Blues Great Fire of London Workshop

Holly Blues had a really immersive experience day on Monday when they used drama activities to flashback to 1666 during the Great Fire of London. Thank you parents for the wonderful costumes.

Eco Council /Garden Club

This past week has been a quite a busy one. In gardening club, we planted our first seeds of the year which was very exciting. In our Eco Council meeting, it was time for our half-termly litter pick, which we did along Chandos Drive. Well done to members of both clubs for a great job!

End of day

At Parent Council yesterday, some parents wanted to discuss the collection arrangements. At the end of last year, we asked for feedback on end of day arrangements and feedback was that this worked well. Miss Churchman will actively encourage parents not to stand in line on the pathway so families can get past and not be on the road.

Valentine House Challenge

The House and Vice House Captains have set a challenge to all students to design a heart. There will be a winner from each year group who will win 10 house points and 2 runners up each earning 5. Think creativity, individuality and what makes you happy. Each child has been given a paper heart today; please make sure they are named and returned no later than Thursday 17 February. We are excited to see the designs.
