

FRIDAY FLYER

12 January 2024

w/c 15 January

Moment of the Week:

Chalk Hill Blues Stunning Start - Year Four had an incredible day with Suffolk Wildlife Trust this week as they improve our school grounds for wildlife. They used a range of tools. They have made this wicker fence to partition the vegetable gardens in the community garden. Please have a look as you walk past. What great work!

Stunning Starts

Small Blues - On Tuesday, the children are becoming detectives as Burglar Bill is going to steal Tom! Watch this space.

Holly Blues - On Monday we experienced a beach themed afternoon. The snow made it too cold to visit the coast, but we had a beach role play in the classroom and made sandcastles. We painted stones with dot patterns, created pirate treasure maps, explored shells by drawing and creating them with playdough and made our own beach scenes. We had a fantastic afternoon and can't wait to learn more in our coastline topic.

Adonis Blues - Each child has constructed a volcano out of paper mâché, painted and then erupted them! They loved making them look like they'd erupted from paint but loved seeing lava flowing out of them too.

Silver Studded Blues - The children learnt about allotments and designed their own ideal allotment. They then planted some cress, broad beans and strawberries and we hope to see them growing soon! Finally, they completed a quiz to identify what is grown in the UK.

Parent Council

We have our meeting on Thursday 18 January at 2.00pm on Teams. The Parent Council will see the results of the parent survey and we will discuss this together. They will also give feedback on two things that were positive in the Autumn Term and one area for development.

Reading Volunteer

We require a reading volunteer for Mr. Thorpe's class. If you could spare an afternoon a week this would be really valued by the children. They really enjoy reading outside the classroom. If you do have time and can commit please talk to Mrs Wood in the office in the first instance.

PE Sessions

Please note Chalk Hill Blues and Silver Studded Blues will be having PE twice a week. Small Blue class will be PE on a Tuesday.
